³ Ibid., vol. 1276, p. 447.

⁴ Ibid., vol. 1484, p. 163.

Article I

The Trijunction point between Myanmar, India and Thailand in the Andaman Sea, which is equidistant from the nearest points of Myanmar, India and Thailand respectively, shall be the point which is to be called Point T and defined by latitude and longitude as follows :

Point T : Latitude 09° 38' 00" North
Longitude 95° 35' 25" East

Article II

The co-ordinates of the trijunction point as specified in Article I are geographical co-ordinates derived from the British Admiralty Chart No. 830 published on 3rd January, 1975 with new edition on 3rd July, 1987, and the trijunction point is indicated on the said Chart¹ annexed hereto, which has been signed by the competent authorities of the three countries.

Article III

The actual location at sea of the trijunction point as specified in Article I shall be determined by a method to be mutually agreed upon by the persons duly authorised for the purpose by their respective Governments.

Article IV

Any dispute between the three Governments relating to the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement shall be settled peacefully by consultation or negotiation.

Article V

This Agreement shall be ratified in accordance with the constitutional requirements of each country. It shall enter into force on the date of the exchange of the Instruments of Ratification which will take place at YANGON as soon as possible.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
